

What is a Help Document

A Help Document is a PDF document that contains information about an action in one of the categories specified in the ManufacturerManager application.

They should be uploaded to the application in order for the AI Assistant to read them and return information from them.